Disclaimer;

Liability for Content

The contents of our website have been created with extraordinary diligence. However, we cannot be liable for the correctness, completeness & topicality of the contents provided.

We reserve our right to change our website at any time.

Data Protection

While visiting our website, information about your access may be recorded by the server. These data's are made anonymous.

They will be exclusively evaluated for statistical purposes. As far as personal data is collected on our website, the input of these data takes place voluntarily.

The data will not be transmitted to third parties.

Please be aware that there are inherent security risks in transmitting data via internet (e.g. communication by e-mail), as it is impossible to safeguard completely against unauthorized access by third parties.

Google Analytics/Data Protection

This website uses Google Analytics, a web analysis service provided by Google Inc. ("Google"). Google Analytics also uses cookies. The information generated by the cookies (including your IP address) is usually transferred to a Google server in the USA and stored there. Google will use this information for the purpose of evaluating your use of the website, compiling reports on website activity for website operators and providing other services relating to website activity and internet usage. Google may also transfer this information to third parties where required to do so by law, or where such third parties process the information on Google's behalf. Google will not associate your IP address with any other data held by Google. You can also prevent the installation of cookies in this context by setting your browser software accordingly. You can also object to the collection and use of your IP address by Google Analytics at any time with effect for the future. Further information can be found at tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout.

We would also like to point out that on this website Google Analytics has been extended by the code "gat._anonymizeIp();" in order to guarantee an anonymous collection of IP addresses. This activation of IP anonymization will cause Google to shorten your IP address within European Union member states or other treaty states of the European Economic Area Agreement before it is transferred to the United States. Only in exceptional cases will the full IP address be transferred to a Google server in the United States and shortened there. A personal reference can thus be excluded.

In the following we summarize the two options for deactivating Google Analytics for you:

You can prevent Google Analytics from collecting data by clicking on the following link. An opt-out cookie will be set which prevents the future collection of your data when you visit this website:

Deactivate Google Analytics

You can also prevent Google from collecting the data generated by the cookie and relating to your use of the website (including your IP address) and from processing this data by Google by clicking on the following link (tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout) download and install the available browser plug-in.

Links

As far as our website contains links to third-party websites, we have no influence on contents and layout of such websites and can therefore not accept any liability for these contents. The content of such third-party websites is always at the sole responsibility of the respective owner/provider. At the time third-party websites were linked to ours, we have checked them for any likely infringement of law; any unlawful contents were not distinguishable. A permanent control of the content of linked pages is not reasonable without concrete evidence for any infringement of law. Upon becoming aware of any infringement of law, we shall promptly delete the link.

Copyrights

The content and works provided on these websites are governed by German copyright law. Any articles of third parties are indicated accordingly. Any non-licensed use requires the prior written consent of the provider or respective copyright holder. This especially applies for duplication, processing, recording and transmittance of single contents or complete pages.

Use of Contact Details

We oppose the use of any contact information available under "corporate information" by any third party for sending unsolicited advertising or information.
